Mayor Risks Sniper Fire in Riot Area on Ravaged 12th St.

One Store Looted in Dearborn

Suspicious Negroes Chased from Park

Nine men were arrested for carrying loaded guns in automobiles and three youths were taken into custody for firing a gun at police officers, as Dearborn experienced a small share of the violence of this week's gigantic riot in Detroit.

While upwards of $200 million in damage from looting and fires was done to Detroit businesses and stores, only one establishment, the Wyoming Hardware store, 7930 Wyoming, was broken into and looted in Dearborn.

But fear gripped Dearborn as residents viewed the possibility that the Detroit riot, the largest and most devastating that any city has ever experienced in American history, would spill over into the suburbs.

For the most part, it didn't. Dearborn and other suburbs were relatively untouched.

HOWEVER, there were the nine arrests for concealed weapons in cars, the three arrests for shooting at police, the looting of the hardware store, plus a few other incidents.

An indication of the fear which gripped the city was an anonymous report to police that there were three suspicious Negro men in the Schaefer-Haggerty neighborhood in east Dearborn.

Police investigated and learned that the three men were employees of the Detroit Edison Company and were regular customers at a bar in the neighborhood.

O'Reilly Guards Riot Area

Police Chief John B. O'Reilly was on the job this week combating the Detroit riots—but with the Michigan National Guard instead of the Dearborn Police Department.

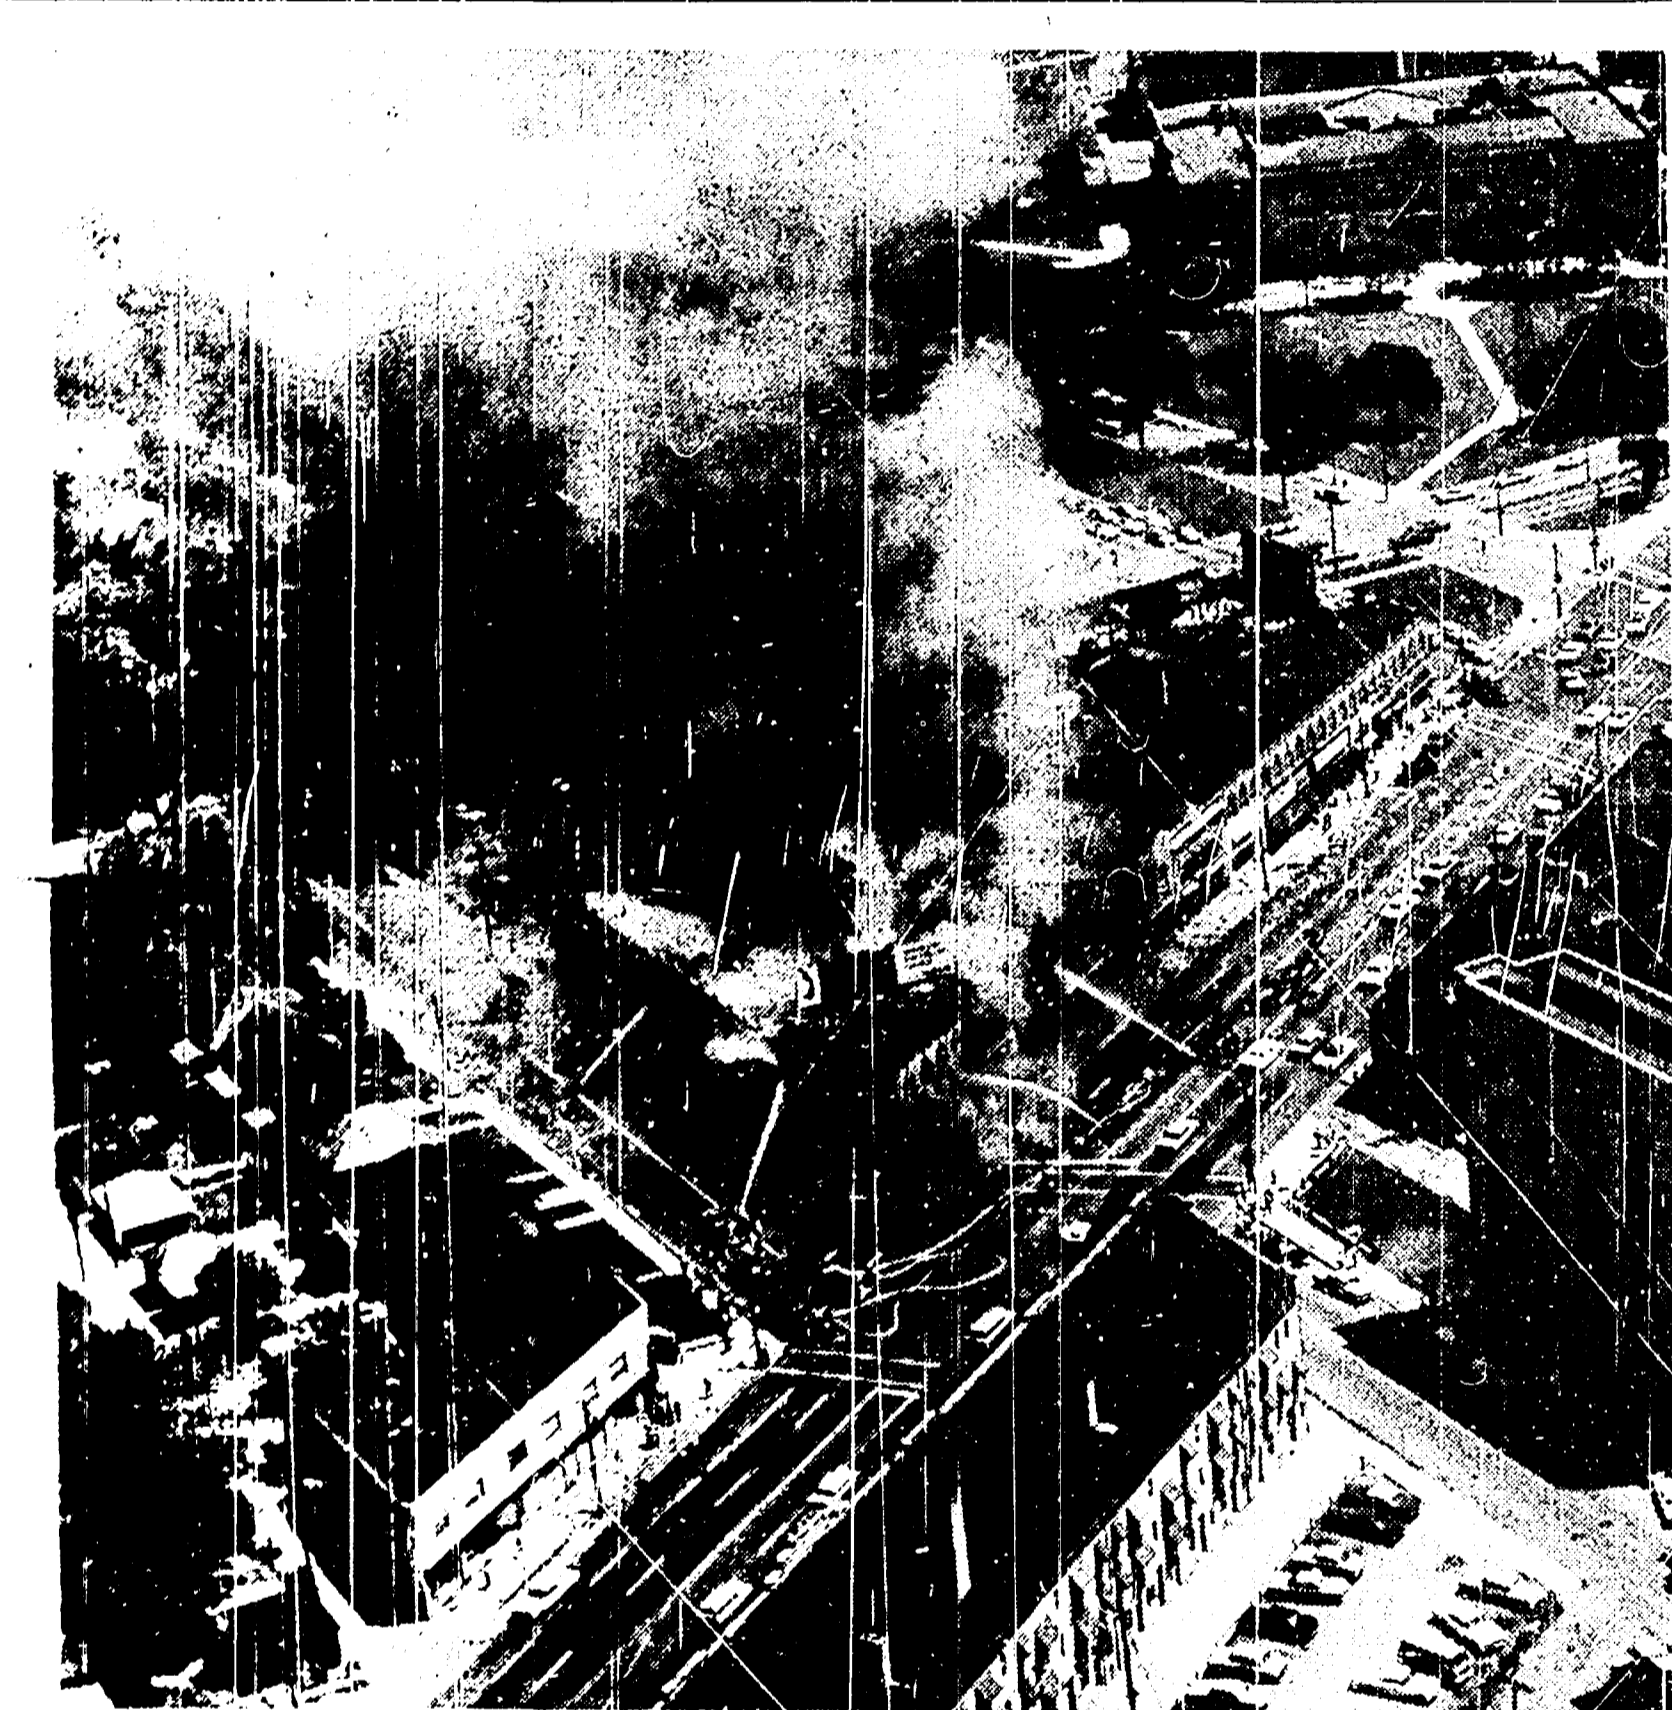

O'Reilly was serving his annual two-week stint with the guard when the rioting broke out Sunday. Gov. George Romney called out the Guard to help restore order.

WITH O'REILLY absent, Deputy Chief Thomas P. Shauzinsky has been directing the Dearborn police department.

O'Reilly was last reported at the National Guard Army on Eight Mile road in Detroit. Where he was dispatched was not revealed.

A World War II and Korean War veteran, O'Reilly, 49, has been with the Michigan National Guard since April, 1947. He is currently serving with the rank of major on the commander's staff of the First Brigade of the 46th Division.

BURN, BABY, BURN . . . The oft-quoted outcry leaped into reality this week as Detroit erupted into the biggest riot of the nation's history. Rioters dashed up and down streets smashing store windows, grabbing whatever they could lift and carry, and then setting fire to the place. The riot began on 12th street and spread along Grand River, Warren, and other thoroughfares. In the picture above, firemen struggle

Youth Held for Firing at Police

Three southeast Dearborn youths were arrested Monday afternoon after one of them allegedly fired a rifle at Dearborn police.

Arrested were Donald Trolley, of 2778 Salina, who reportedly fired the shot, and two companions, Harold A. Willison, of 8860 Avis, Detroit, and Troy W. Sullivan, of 2801 Salina.

Willison and Sullivan were charged with disorderly behavior and Trolley for assault with a deadly weapon.

POLICE said that they came upon a group of ten boys at 2831 Salina and told them to disperse. As the youths left, one cracked, "Why aren't you out fighting the Negroes?"

The reference was to the Detroit rioting which was then at its peak.

A short time later, at a house on Akron, Trolley reportedly took out a gun and fired one shot at the officers. They promptly disarmed and arrested him.

City Resembles 'Ghost Town' As Stores Observe Curfew

Dearborn became a "ghost town" Monday as stores and businesses closed early or did not open at all, to avert trouble during the Detroit riot of this week.

The Chamber of Commerce set a 5:30 p.m. closing time guideline for local merchants, and almost all followed it. Even drug stores were closed.

WITH THREE and a half hours of daylight left, Dearborn's business streets seemed strange and eerie, with the normal Monday evening flood of shopping completely absent. About the only thing open after 5:30 p.m. was City Hall, and it was unusually quiet.

The "ghost town" atmosphere was the result of pleas of government leaders and broadcasters for everyone to stay home during the riot. Almost everyone in Dearborn stayed home.

Families and neighborhood friends gathered on porches to talk and wait for the anticipated violence which never came.

SOME BANKS were closed Monday. The Bank of Dearborn at Schaefer and Michigan was open while a block away, at Michigan and Neckel, the Manufacturer's National Bank was closed.

Radio and television coverage of the riot was particularly extensive on Monday, and people listened to the details as they sat or worked around their houses.

When darkness came, some residents with gaslight-type lamps on their front or back lawns turned off the lamps in order to avoid focusing attention on their houses.

Another milestone in the construction of Dearborn's $3 million Henry Ford Centennial Library will be observed Sunday as officials from the city, Ford Foundation, Ford Motor Company, architects and general contractor gather to place a date stone on the building front.

Mayor Orville L. Hubbard pointed out that the 2 p.m. ceremony will be held on the 104th anniversary of Henry Ford's birthday. He invited all Dearborn residents to participate in the event.

Lootings Reported in City

Burglars Exploit Tense Situation

Thieves, taking advantage of the tense situation caused by the rioting, broke into several homes and businesses in the city Monday and Tuesday nights.

The home of Councilman George W. Bondie, 22481 Outer Drive, was ransacked Monday night. Nothing was reported missing.

At the home of Helen Marman, 2752 Salina, a window was broken to gain entry and burglars escaped with about $140. A color TV set, valued at $850 was stolen from the home of Woodrow B. Johnson, 4309 Calhoun.

Vending machines were pried open at the Imperial Design & Manufacturing Co., 3910 Jonathan, and an undetermined amount of money taken.

THIEVES broke into the Westborn Chrysler dealership at 23300 Michigan Tuesday night and stole batteries from 12 late model cars.

The Westborn Auto Wash, 20020 Outer Drive, was ransacked Monday. Michael Adams, the manager, said he could find nothing missing.

At the Wyoming Jewels, 7930 Wyoming, owner Louis Redmond reported that two plate glass windows were broken and several electric fans were taken.

Thieves jimmied a rear door and entered Shifrin-Willens Jewelers, 13710 Michigan, and ransacked several showcases. A spokesman for the company said that the thieves escaped with an undetermined amount of loot.

Judges on Call During Rioting

Municipal Judge Ralph B. Guy and Associate Judge John L. Kadela put themselves on call this week for cases at the convenience of policemen.

The police were on 12-hour shifts instead of the usual eight-hour shifts, and the judges heard cases and held arrangements whenever the individual policemen had time.

Stone Placing Rites Scheduled at Library

Center on Michigan avenue near Greenfield from a Ford Foundation grant, is scheduled to be completed by late 1968. According to representative of Harley, Ellington, Cowin & Stinton, architect and Barton-Malow, general contractor, construction is slightly ahead of schedule.

When completed, the three-story structure will include a 300-seat lecture hall, modern meeting rooms and exhibit areas, as well as space for 300,000 volumes.

By ALEC BERRY

Dearborn police have orders to "shoot to kill" any possible store looters or arsonists who may have ideas about coming into Dearborn, Mayor Orville L. Hubbard revealed yesterday as he toured the riot torn areas in Detroit with members of the press and State Senator Lorraine Beebe (R-12th District).

The Mayor and his guests came under the danger of sniper fire at 12th street and Blaine, the recent scene of intense rooftop firing at police, national guard and U. S. Army units who are trying to stop the chaos that has plagued Detroit since rioting broke out Sunday.

HUBBARD blamed years of priming by Negro leaders for the recent outbreak and said "It was only inevitable that so much hate propaganda should ignite the fuse that is burning Detroit."

He warned, however, that Dearborn would not tolerate any of the victimizing "of those little businessmen who have worked hard all their lives to earn a decent living."

The Mayor had selected Chief Inspector Karl G. Parchert to head up a task force of Dearborn police officers around the clock defending Dearborn's border. Police Chief Jack O'Reilly is currently on assignment in Detroit with his National Guard unit. He was at Camp Grayling on maneuvers when the rioting broke out.

Mayor Hubbard said he had every confidence in Parchert to handle any situation that may arise and called him "a courageous man who was not afraid to act."

THE MAYOR met with local members of the press in his office earlier Wednesday afternoon and then arranged a tour of the battle-scarred areas of Detroit for newspaper reporters and Senator Beebe who said she wanted to know firsthand what was happening to Detroit. Also in the Mayor's entourage were his aides, Ralph Guy, Jr., the city's Corporation Counsel, and Doyne Jackson, director of research and information.

The trip almost turned out to be a nightmare as the two city cars made a stop at the intersection of 12th and Blaine.

Boh Parchert and Sgt. Jack Artman who were driving the cars, hurriedly jumped out of the cars—with Parchert carrying a Thompson submachine gun and Artman a carbine—on the alert for snipers.

Armed National Guardsmen and police were manning every corner along 12th street — most of them crouched or scanning nearby rooftops.

The Mayor and the others waited in their cars as one newsman attempted to obtain pictures of any sniping or action. A short while later, loud gunshots could be heard in the vicinity and police and army units rushed in the direction of the sniping.

Looters Hit Store in NE Area

A $600 loss was sustained by a northeast Dearborn hardware store Monday night in the only case of looting in Dearborn during the Detroit riot of this week.

The Wyoming Hardware store, at 7930 Wyoming a half-block south of the Detroit boundary at Tireman, was the store looted.

TWO LARGE plate glass windows were smashed, and a number of portable fans were removed from the window shelves.

Sgt. Joseph Maeri said he was checking the alley west of the store when he heard the alarm go off at the hardware store, located on the east side of Wyoming.

The officer said that he ran over to Wyoming; and saw four or five Negroes leaving the area going east on Tireman. An unidentified witness said that the men had the fans with them.

Offices Looted

Thieves ransacked the offices and removed a typewriter from the Diamond Transportation Company, 6837 Wyoming, Friday night.

Eugene Steinmetz, an employee, told police he discovered the rear door open and the desks ransacked.

OILED WEAPONS COCKED FOR ACTION

Residents Wonder if City Is Next Target

BY ROBERT SELWA
Guide News Editor

It was a typical Dearborn neighborhood, but it was an untypical night.

As they sat on their porches, talking softly, with their radios on, residents wondered if the Detroit rioting would explode into Dearborn.

Stores were being destroyed and looted only a half mile from the Dearborn boundary. What's to stop them from coming in here and tearing up our city? one asked.

NO PEOPLE who you'd always felt to be the most peace-loving kind, were digging out their guns, and waiting.

There was a widow with five children, a friendly family that is one of the joys of the neighborhood. She dozed, her front lawn gaslight lamp so as to not attract attention to her house.

And as she and her girls sat on their front porch chatting softly, a rifle and a pistol lay within reach just inside the front door.

Down the block, a man and his wife kept their three children close by as the darkness descended.

The man is a gun collector, and he has many special models, including a German Luger.

He had recently put in a new driveway and a new sod lawn in front, and during the day he was polishing up his car. Now he and his wife sat on their front porch, and his Luger was in a holster that he was wearing over his T-shirt. ON ANOTHER block, a family proudly announced that they were armed and ready, with their guns loaded should any of the rioters try to come here.

And on another block, three youths sat on a porch, without any weapons, listening to the radio, analyzing the riot, drinking beer, and sometimes laughing.

It was peaceful and quiet, there were hardly any cars, so few that when a fast-moving car did come down the street, some people on their porches eyed it with worry.

A group of neighbors gathered together on the corner and looked out on the other side of Tireman, at Detroit. They seemed to huddle together for safety.

toward Detroit where the fires were burning and the violence going on, and they watched the cars coming in.

Every so often, especially in border areas, a Dearborn patrol car came by, and once in a while a siren sounded.

Ordinary noises became, for many, suspicious noises, and people stared into the darkness looking for any sign of trouble.

They didn't want any trouble, they said, but if it came, they added pointedly, they were ready.

A Kentucky Colonel

MUNICIPAL JUDGE Ralph B. Guy was accorded another special honor recently when he was commissioned an official Kentucky Colonel by the state's governor, Edward T. Breathitt. Judge Guy, a direct descendant of Daniel Boone, received a citation from the governor in his private chambers from William Thomas (left), a member of the Dearborn Plan Commission and himself a Kentucky colonel. "Since this honor confers all the rights and responsibilities of the State, I might get called into military service if Kentucky ever goes to war," the Judge quipped.

Shoot Looters, Mayor Says

Hubbard also blamed Governor George Romney and accused him of "being another person who straddles a fence."

"When you have mad dogs running around, brute force is needed to cope with the situation," the Mayor declared. He seemed to appear more and more like a version of the late actor Sidney Greenstreet who pounded the message home in the movie, "The Hustlers."

HE SAID THAT the Negro wants to be called black, not colored, and that he resents authority. He said the Negro needs to be educated and given the opportunity to become useful—that he needs to be treated nicely.

"This is why we treat people nice here and that particularly includes the black man," the Mayor said.

He called the recent burning of Detroit as "instant urban renewal" and said that he doesn't know how Cavanagh is going to handle the demonstration cities conference due here soon.

THE MAYOR attacked all the publicity that the riot was given by the news media and said that marshal law should include a ban on all stories and pictures relating to the affair, because this helped to aggravate the situation all over the nation.

The touring party was taken through burned and charred areas and then stopped at a section of McGraw that was being repaired by Detroit Edison men under heavy armed guard.

Several of the repairmen recognized the Mayor and greeted him heartily. One, a Negro, became fascinated by the Hubbard charm. The Mayor disembarked from his car, and under the protective eyes and guns of Parchert and Artman chatted with the Edison repairmen, who had been under sniper fire.

One of the men produced a camera and several posed with the Mayor who told them how he would have handled the situation if he had the responsibility.

The entire tour lasted more than 2½ hours and returned to Dearborn City Hall.

STATE SENATOR Beebe, who was visibly shaken, said she did not really comprehend come rampaging into Dearborn from Detroit's riot areas, but the only case of a clash between Negroes and whites in Dearborn involved a few whoys at Crowley Park in southwest Dearborn.

Three Negro boys entered the wooded park shortly after 9 p.m. Monday, smashed a pop bottle on the ground, and attempted to start a fight with white boys playing in the park.

A nearby resident, Andrew Keeskes, of 24930 Carlisle, came out of his house to investigate, and the Negro boys fled westward toward Gully.

THE NINE arrests for carrying guns in cars involved white men in three separate cases.

In one instance, four men in a 1964 Cadillac were pulled over by Dearborn police on Warren just east of Lonyo after they had driven through the Arlan parking lot.

The driver of the car, Giuseppe Stanzone, 31, of 6961 Greenfield, Detroit, was ticketed for excessive noise, when police discovered a number of weapons and shells in his car.

Found in the car were a 12 gauge Winchester automatic rifle, a double barrel 16 gauge Savage rifle, a 30 caliber Iver-Johnson rifle, three boxes of 12 gauge shells, one box of 16 gauge shotgun shells, and one box of 50 rounds of 38 caliber shells.

The guns were loaded, and police also found eight rounds of 38 caliber shells in Stanzone's pocket.

The new structure, measuring 280 feet in length by 130 feet wide, is being built on a 15.3 acre tract donated by the Ford Motor Company.

ARRESTED with him were Alexander Grandsko, 23, of 7644 Mead; Donald E. Jajiness, 23, and Terry D. Lajiness, 24, of 6761 Greenfield, Detroit. The four were charged with carrying concealed weapons and violating the 9 p.m. to 5:30 a.m. curfew.

Stanzone is the Dearborn resident involved in the Kendal street incident of 1963 and the subsequent trial of Mayor Orville L. Hubbard on charges of failing to provide police protection during a minor riot. Hubbard was found not guilty.

This occurred Monday night shortly after midnight. A short time earlier, a similar incident occurred in west Dearborn.

WILLIAM RASSMUSSEN of 22310 Morley Court, and Douglas

L. Korte, of 22627 Garrison, were stopped by police at a gas station at Outer Drive and Michigan after they were reported by a Wildwood street resident.

Police said that they found beer and loaded guns in the Volkswagen driven by the two youths. The pair was arrested for carrying a dangerous weapon and for violating the curfew.

At 3:20 a.m. Tuesday, gunshots were reported in the Ford-Wyoming area. Dearborn police arrested three men on the same charges.

Taken into custody were Morgan B. Swanner, 24, of 18227 Carman; Buel D. Lasater, 25, of 1071 Adeline; and Donald Ott, 31, of 60 E. Grand, all of Detroit. Swanner admitted firing a rifle twice into the air.

No Contest for Mayor in Primary

The City Clerk's office predicted yesterday that there will be no contest in the Sept. 12 primary for Mayor, Clerk, Treasurer, Judge and Associate Judge.

At the rate the election is shaping up it was said, the only contested offices in the primary will be those of the seven Councilmen and the two Constables.

NO MORE than two candidates each have taken out nominating petitions for Treasurer and Judge, and only one candidate each has taken out petitions for Mayor, Clerk and Associate Judge.

Election procedures provide for two nominees for each of these positions, and if there are no more than two candidates, the office is not put on the ballot until the final election in November.

"It looks like the only races we'll have in September will be for Councilman and Constable," Director of Elections William Karr said yesterday. "And even there the interest is not as high as we originally expected."

SO FAR 23 candidates have taken out petitions for Council, and five for Constable. Four will be nominated for Constable in the primary, and 14 for the Council.

The 23rd person to take out petitions for Council was Frank Collins, 53, of 5321 Bingham, a cosmologist who owns a beauty shop in the Michigan-Schaefer area.

Councilman Edward J. Dombrowski yesterday became the 11th candidate to file his nominating petitions. Dombrowski, 51, of 7516 Appoline, is a consulting engineer. He has been on the Council since 1950 and is its current president.

All City officials except Mayor Orville L. Hubbard have taken out their petitions, and several have filed. The filing deadline is Aug. 19.

Hubbard is expected to take out and file his petitions at the last minute.

Charles Nemech, a foe of Hubbard throughout his 26 years in office, is the only candidate in the Mayor's race so far.

Couple Injured in Auto Crash

A Dearborn couple was injured in a two-car accident on Michigan and Oakman Saturday morning.

Taken to Wayne County General Hospital were Michael and Bessie Yoncheff, of 4411 Lois. Also injured was Stephen V. Rayha, of 4747 Toledo, Detroit.

Stanzione Is Seized With Loaded Guns, Ammunition in Car

Giuseppe Stanzione is in trouble with the law again. Stanzione, along with three other men, was arrested Monday night and charged with carrying dangerous weapons in a motor vehicle and also of violating the curfew.

His companions, Alexander J. E. Grandsko, 23, of 7644 Mead; Donald E. Lajiness, Jr., 23, and Terry Lajiness, 24, both of Detroit, were also arraigned on similar charges.

All four were arraigned before Associate Judge John Kadela who adjourned the case until August 11. Bond was set at $10,000 each.

While patrolling the Lonyo area, police said, they came upon a car with the four in it. The driver of the car, police said, stopped at Warren and Wyoming.

POLICE SAID they approached the car and after questioning the men, discovered a large amount of ammunition and guns inside the car. The four men, who also had a German Shepherd dog with them, were brought to the station and booked.

Stanzione, who has previously been in trouble with the law, made headlines in 1963 when he sued the city of Dearborn. Mayor Hubbard, former Police Chief Garrison Clayton and Safety Director George Lewis for failing to provide ample protection for him during the Kendall Street uprising.

On Labor Day of that year, Stanzione rented his home on Kendall to a Japanese-white couple. His neighbors, thinking that Stanzione had rented or sold his home to Negroes, gathered and later broke windows and damaged his car.

Acting Dean

DR. JOHN E. GLAVIN, of 1937 Byrd, Dearborn, has been appointed as the acting dean of the Wayne State University Law School. He succeeds Arthur Neef who retired July 1 as dean. Glavin, a graduate of the University of Michigan where he received Bachelor of Arts and Juris Doctor degrees, practiced law in the New York and Detroit before joining the WSU faculty. He has served as chairman of the corporation and securities committee of the Michigan State Bar Association. He is Phi Beta Kappa.

12-Hour Shifts for Police

Dearborn police went on 12-hour shifts with full manpower when the Detroit riot broke out Sunday, and have been in that state of preparedness ever since.

The police normally are on eight-hour shifts, with a double shift at night. Two large 12-hour shifts were created for the duration of the riot.

DEPUTY CHIEF Thomas P. Shaughnessy said that all main entrances to Dearborn were being watched for rioters.

Police cars have been intensively patrolling side streets as well, especially in high-crime areas.

All leaves have been cancelled for the 180 men on the Dearborn police force, according to Shaughnessy. He said that from 58 to 60 patrolmen are on Dearborn streets at all times.

SNIPER VICTIM

A photographer for the United Press International was hospitalized at the Dearborn Medical Center after he was wounded by a sniper in the Detroit riot this week.

Floyd Shivey, 44, of Indianapolis, was taking pictures for the UPI on the 2600 block of Grand River in Detroit when he was wounded in the leg by a sniper.

He was taken to the Dearborn hospital, located at 10151 Michigan near Wyoming, where doctors said the wound was caused by a .22 caliber bullet. Shivey said that he didn't know from what direction the shot came.

Ford Plant Operations Not Halted

The Ford Motor Company continued work on reduced schedules during Monday's rioting in Detroit.

The company's Rouge plant in Dearborn escaped the rioting, but many employees stayed home from work especially those from riot-torn areas.

SOME OPERATIONS worked while others closed down in the Rouge complex. About half of the Rouge employees are Negroes.

There were no incidents of violence reported at the Rouge plant.

Contract talks between Ford and the United Auto Workers were called off Monday.

Almost all activities, including assembly work, were called off Monday at the two other major auto companies, General Motors and Chrysler.

City Attorney Calls Race Riot A Breakdown of Social Controls

Dearborn City Attorney Ralph B. Guy, Jr., Wednesday characterized the Detroit racial riots as a breakdown of social controls by the general populace.

Guy, Mayor Orville L. Hubbard, Parking Meter Director William Broomhail, and a reporter took a four-hour tour Monday afternoon of the most intensively riot-torn areas of Detroit. They saw the looting and the burning as it was going on.

Broomhail said that it was "very interesting". Hubbard said that he was "really scared for the first time in my life," and Guy said that he was amazed at the amount of looting going on totally unrestricted. "In broad daylight," Guy said, "people were carting off stuff without any interference from store owners, police or residents."

THE WORD got around very early in the riot, Guy said, that the Detroit police had orders to hold back with their weapons, and as a result looting was more uninhibited. "I saw eight, nine and ten-year old kids going into stores," Guy related. "I would have been inclined to use more force sooner but I could be doing wrong on that," Guy commented.

"Human beings still respond to some basic motivations—recondoning through inaction on the part of citizens. "You just can't have enough policemen to curtail all of the acts of wrong that go on," he said. "We have to regenerate among the populace the spirit of law enforcement." Guy said that the Detroit riot, had racial overtones, but was not a race riot. "It was absolutely not a racial riot," he declared. "The general racial tone in Detroit is the best of any of the major cities."

THE LESSON of the riot, Guy declared, is that all citizens are going to have to take an ever increasing role in law enforcement. In the Detroit riot, he said, there was a great deal of

School Board Members Named to State Groups

Appointments to board committees and to state educational groups have been announced by Dearborn Board of Education President Frank S. Gallagher.

Gallagher named Trustee Russell D. Catlerman as Dearborn's representative on the Southeast Michigan Council of Governments and Trustee Charles R. Rapp as the alternate. Gallagher has served as the delegate until now.

TRUSTEE William Loranzer was appointed as the Dearborn representative to the Michigan Association of Community College Boards, with Catherman as the alternate.

The Administrative Performance Evaluation Study Committee continues with Trustee Henry Rogers as chairman and Loranzer and Trustee Francis Huettman as members.

Gallagher appointed Trustee Dr. Grant MacKenzie as his replacement on the City-School Building Committee. The other members are Catherman, who is chairman, and Rapp. The committee is studying the feasibility of a joint center of government to be constructed in the Dearborn civic center.

GALLAGHER appointed Huettman as the chairman of the School Building Inspection Committee, with Rogers and MacKenzie as the other members.

The board representatives on the naming committee for the Athletic Memorial Center building of Henry Ford Community College will be Catherman, Huettman and Loranzer.

Gallagher also appointed Huettman as the Dearborn representative on the legislative committee of the Michigan Association of School Boards.

Painter Turns Hospital Aide

An east Dearborn man who works as a painter found himself pressed into service as a hospital aide during the Detroit rioting this week.

William J. Bauman, of 5650 Middlesex, was scheduled to do some painting at Henry Ford Hospital when the rioting broke out Sunday.

As the violence spread, the hospital put Bauman to work helping with the wounded who needed medical treatment.

Village Tourist Booth Serves Hundreds Daily

Officials of Greenfield Village and the Dearborn Chamber of Commerce expressed satisfaction with the new travel information booth outside the Henry Ford Museum which opened June 23. Since its inception tourists have been using it at an increasing rate.

Six hundred to 1,000 information requests per day are being processed at the booth, according to Robert Dawson, director of public relations for the Museum and Village, and Richard Chapman, executive vice-president of the Chamber of Commerce. Operation of the facility is coordinated jointly by the two organizations.

Plant tour schedules and routes to Windsor and other parts of Canada are high on their list of questions.

Tourists stop to inquire about hotels, motels and restaurants and ask directions to local stores, beauty shops, and auto service centers.

Dawson also said that many people want to know about other attractions to see and visit in the Southeast Michigan area after visiting Henry Ford Museum and Greenfield Village.

Travelers also ask many questions about routes from Detroit to points in Ohio, Indiana and Illinois.

ACCORDING to Dawson, most tourists making inquiries at the booth are traveling east and west from the Detroit area.

As It Looks to Us . . .

Who's to Blame for All This?

EXCEPT FOR a few isolated lootings, Dearborn so far has escaped the widespread pillaging and burning of homes and business places experienced in much of the Detroit inner city all this week.

After surveying the situation first hand late yesterday afternoon, Mayor Orville L. Hubbard has assured Dearborn residents and businessmen that there'll be no lootings in this town, if he can help it. He has threatened to shoot the Negro looters "on sight."

The Dearborn police have been placed on a riot alert and are ready to cope with the situation if it should spill over into Dearborn and other nearby suburban communities.

The frightening aspects of the racial riots that started in Detroit early Sunday morning and have continued since have left their mark on the citizens of Dearborn. The effects will remain for months to come, possibly years. Those who were quick to condemn this community for its so-called lily white attitude are now beginning to wonder if possibly they were wrong.

It is unfair to condemn the entire Negro community for the lawlessness of the small minority in their midst who had to resort to looting and burning to vent their emotions and hatred of "Whitey" who had denied them their equal rights in the past. But burning and pillaging and sniping is definitely the wrong approach and decidedly immoral. It is not going to bring forth the solution.

Negro leaders in Detroit are saying that this is not a racial uprising because whites were also taking part in the lootings. They're saying that the rioting was set off by economic factors. We disagree with this completely.

It is being pointed out that the rioting flared after the raid of an after-hours "blind pig" in the 12th-Clairmount area and spread in all directions. However, the incident provided only a convenient excuse to unleash the much ballyhooed "black power."

As much as we are in sympathy with the sad plight of the downtrodden Negro, we don't feel Negroes are going to make political or social gains by starting riots and burning property. This is the worst approach the Negro community could have made.

The city of Detroit has made great headway in Negro-white relations since the dark days of the 1943 race riots. The Negro has benefited much from this progress, and Detroit should have been the last city in the United States to be put to the torch by the militant segment of the Negro community.

The Detroit Negro has not been denied adequate housing and employment opportunities such as has not been made available to Negroes in all other communities in this country. Negro leaders have been provided open forums to voice complaints on social and economic inequities of their people, and this joint effort between whites and Negroes has been of mutual benefit to all.

The rioting this week had indicated clearly that Negro leaders have no control over their people. The extremists in their midst have expressed the desire to burn down the entire city to achieve their objective which is to rule with "black power," whatever that means.

In subjecting the Detroit inner city to all this pillaging and burnings, the Negro community has probably hurt itself more than it did "Whitey." The economic losses can be recovered in time, but the moral aspects will linger for a generation or more. The Negro will have to start all over again and convince his white neighbors that he is ready to be an equal partner.

The regrettable thing about it all is that the white majority is going to throw the blame on all Negroes, not just the ones who smashed store windows and looted and casually carted home all those color TV sets and clothing and liquor and what not.

What brought it all on? It's a question that will be debated for months to come.

Certainly, one cannot blame it on a breakdown of white-Negro relations. The Negro, as was pointed out above, has made remarkable gains in Detroit and other large cities in the North. Population-wise, the Negro was rapidly becoming the majority group in the central city.

One hears of the Black Muslims and the Black Panthers and the Black Nationalists and other Negro extremist groups who advocate "black power" and the overthrow of the white man's rule. The lootings and the burnings are attributable to these groups.

There should be no doubt in anyone's mind that these "black power" advocates are responsible for the trouble in Detroit, rather than the reported economic plight of the Negro community. Slums, of course, are a problem. But who creates slums? And certainly slums are not eradicated by putting the torch to hundreds of business places.

The social ills that could be blamed for the outbreak of lootings and fires in large sections of Detroit this week need not be elucidated at this time. They're not important just now. The important thing is to stop the lawlessness and the lootings; and this grave injustice to citizens who have worked a lifetime to build a business, only to see it wiped out overnight.

The important thing also is to make our streets safe and free and eliminate the need for the existing curfew and possible martial law that will come next.

The important thing is to make the Negro extremists see that they are moving the clock back in this free and liberty-loving America which has set the pace for the rest of the world.

The important thing that must not be overlooked is that the American public is not sold down the river by ambitious politicians who are more interested in buying a minority group's vote than serving the people as a whole.

Those who threaten to burn down America to achieve their aims must be made to understand that they will be the first to suffer from their acts of terrorism.

Not a Candidate

To the Editor:
I am very honored by Robert Selwa's generous column. Indeed, I trust I shall always be worthy of the confidence you have placed in me.

At the same time, I have to admit that I'm a realist when it comes to the 1968 Presidential election and there are no plans for my being a candidate.

Right now my main concern is that I will do the best job possible for the people of Oregon and my nation in serving them through this important assembly.

MARK O. HATFIELD
U.S. Senator

Dangerous Drug

To the Editor:

I wish to go on record as opposing strenuously the bill introduced by State Senator Roger E. Craig for the legalization of marijuana. While I have a deep respect for the sincerity of the Senator, the passage of this bill to legalize possession and sale of marijuana would, in my opinion, be a serious mistake.

My opposition is predicated on the experience I derived as an Assistant United States Attorney. While engaged in that capacity for about 17 years, my principal function was the prosecution of peddlers of narcotics, including marijuana.

I learned that marijuana has a vicious effect on the mind of the user. While the use of marijuana is only habit forming as contra distinguished from addiction that inflicts a user of heroin, morphine and other derivatives of opium; nevertheless the continued use of marijuana may cause serious consequences.

Marijuana generally destroys the inhibitions of the user allowing the propensities, whatever they may be, full freedom. He may have a propensity to be unduly vicious, or he may have the propensity toward humor, given to inordinate laughter. In fact, in some parts of the country, marijuana cigarettes were referred to as the "ziggles."

The mind is distorted, affecting the sense of time and space. It creates a false sense of values. As an example, many bank robbers were known to smoke marijuana in order to have the false courage they needed in order to overcome the fear of violence or even death involved in the commission of such crimes.

There is a continual danger that the user will become addicted to the use of other narcotics, such as heroin or morphine.

The most dangerous user is one who leads a life of crime and is obsessed with a hatred for a policeman. Marijuana would sometimes give him the false courage to consummate that hatred. Federal Agents would express their preference to apprehend narcotic addicts using heroin, rather than a marijuana user.

A heroin user will always act normal and peaceful when under the influence. He is weak physically when suffering from the lack of the drug. The marijuana user is generally abnormal when under the influence of the drug and his conduct is unpredictable.

The use of liquor cannot be placed in the same category as marijuana. Marijuana is far more destructive of the mental and physical structure. The Marijuana Law of 1937 was passed to cope with the deplorable conditions brought on by the indiscriminate use of marijuana.

The repeal would not be conducive to the betterment of the present conditions. I strongly urge everyone to protest the passage of this bill. Such legislation can only open the door to increased indulgence.

VINCENT FORDELL
Dearborn Councilman

Why Protest?

To the Editor:

The newspapers are always inserting report reports and, quite honestly, I feel left out. I, too, am concerned with our war but something tells me sitting on the floor of a city courthouse will not help the boys who are dying in Vietnam.

Also, the plight of the Negro members of our society disturbs me but walking fifty miles gives me sore feet and I never could sing.

If these pawisish protesters would stop using the muscles in their legs and exercise the one mounted directly above their shoulders, possibly they could accomplish something of worth.

I'll be glad to help. I'm not too busy. Matter of fact, I'm doing absolutely nothing.

Non-Renegades

To the Editor:

In the world today when all youth is classified with the minority of "hippies" and bearded renegades, I feel that any and all good being done by teenagers should not go unrecognized.

Not all teenagers are banana-smoking, glue-sniffing hippies. Many of them are trying to make a good name for themselves.

SPEAKING OF BOOKS

Ansel Adams Captures Beauty of the Continent

AMERICA MAY have its riots and its ghettos but it also has its serene moments and its beauty spots. In fact the American continent is resplendent with fantastic sights of natural beauty.

We preserve these spots through our national and state park systems, preserve them for our enjoyment and for all future generations. These spots seem to grow all the more beautiful through the years as the rest of the land is developed and misdeveloped by urban man and his industry. Time sharpens the contrast; and intensifies the aura of the national parks.

THE STRIKING beauty of the national parks are captured by America's greatest photographer of scenery, Ansel Adams, in "These We Inherit—the Parklands of America" (Sierra Club, San Francisco, 103 pages, $15).

This book is giant size—10 inches by 14 inches—and consists almost entirely of large black and white photographs by Adams.

These magnificent pictures of our national parks help us see the diversity and wealth of the continent. Here are some of the scenes in the book:

The crater of Haleakala in the Hawaii National Park is shown in misty cloudiness. The utter serenity of Crater Lake in Oregon is captured in a picture that the viewer wishes were in color.

SUNRISE hits the frosty white bulk of Mount McKinley in Alaska. And the light of late afternoon shadows the mighty redwoods of the Richardson Grove of California.

At the Jupiter Terrace of Yellowstone National Park, the viewer can almost sense the boiling water. Or he can almost touch the Joshua Trees National Monument in a picture taken at moonrise.

And then there is the most beautiful national park of all, Yosemite, of California. Adams captures a scene of unbelievable beauty here, with the Merced River flowing in the snow-covered Yosemite Valley with El Capitan, a sheer wall of granite three-fifths of a mile high, in the background.

"These We Inherit—the Parklands of America" is truly a treasure.

THINK ABOUT IT!

JOE PETERSON

The plight of starving people is not a pleasant sight. But it does exist. Poverty or food shortages cause malnutrition or starvation in more countries than most people imagine. Look at the known list—

Argentina, Austria, Belgium, Bolivia, Borneo, Brazil, Burma, Cameroun, Ceylon, Chile, China, Costa Rica, Cuba, Egypt, Greece, Haiti, Hong Kong, India, Indonesia, Iran, Jamaica, Jordan, Kenya, Korea, Lapland, Lebanon, Macao, Malaya, Mexico, Nigeria, Northern and Southern Rhodesia, Okinawa, Pakistan, Paraguay, Philippines, Portugal, Puerto Rico, South Africa, Spain, Swaziland, Syria, Taiwan, Thailand, Turkey, Uruguay—and believe it or not—segments of the Indian and Negro races in the United States.

In today's world of parasitic politics, either malnutrition or starvation of human beings is shameful and disgraceful. Doesn't it seem proper to ask when civilized nations will stop squandering billions in armaments and heed the prophet Isaiah, "... They shall beat their swords into plowshares... neither will they learn war any more" . . . ?

Orville Doesn't Admire Jerry's Riot Handling

By BILL ROSS

MAYOR ORVILLE L. HUBBARD has made it clear that the looting and burning of business places now destroying the heart of Detroit wouldn't happen in Dearborn.

"There isn't going to be looting in this town," the Mayor said in a determined voice. "We'll shoot them if they try."

Those were fighting words coming from Mayor Hubbard, but he said it in a way that was unmistakable. He wasn't going to make the mistakes that Detroit Mayor Jerry Cavanagh made, it appeared.

The Mayor added power to his remarks by saying that looters would be shot "on sight." Although he didn't elaborate on his statement, it was evident that our Orville didn't exactly admire the way Cavanagh had handled the situation.

Most likely, Hubbard would have quelled the uprising before it got a block past Twelfth and Clairmount.

Mayor Cavanagh, on the other hand, was slow in taking action and even slower in telling his brow-beater police department to take the offensive against the Negro militants.

Cavanagh's slow motion, of course, was dominated by inner city politics which has greatly influenced his mayoral reign. In this respect, the Detroit mayor is no different than politicians in other cities and states.

The Negro vote had become most important to city officials like Cavanagh who have been brainwashed to the point where they feel they can't get re-elected without that minority's vote. It isn't so with Mayor Hubbard.

One of the main reasons Hubbard has remained mayor in Dearborn for so many years is that he speaks his mind without worrying about the repercussions. This, obviously, has prevented him from attaining a higher office, such as a Circuit Court judgeship.

It hasn't been so with Mayor Cavanagh. He has been courting the Negro vote to such an extent that he has totally forgotten the white majority. And the so-called Negro leaders have been making greater and greater demands upon his office.

THIS NEGRO PRESSURE has also had its effect on the functions and morale of the Detroit police, who in recent months have been hesitant in apprehending colored lawbreakers for fear they would be given a dressing-down by their superiors or accused of "police brutality."

Consequently, the Negro in Detroit has become a privileged citizen who could do no wrong . . .

In the months before the rioting, the average Detroitite took a big chance if he decided to take a walk after dark—even when he was out walking his dog in the neighborhood. This terrorism even spilled over into Dearborn, near the Detroit city limits.

It was a case where the long-privileged white man was losing his position to the more-demanding Negro. The balance of power was swinging the other way, aided by the political influence of the emerging Negro swingsters.

You could feel this contemptible attitude on the part of Negro desk clerks when you visited the City-County Building or any of the state or city offices.

Of course, we're not inferring that all the Negro office workers behaved in this arrogant manner, but enough did. And the behavior of the few cast an unfavorable reflection on the many.

When the rioters struck Sunday morning, they had everything working on their side—weak-kneed politicians, demoralized police, helpless citizens, lack of a sound program to discourage such hoodliganism.

Such isn't the case in Dearborn. Mayor Hubbard has long been outspoken on the Negro issue, but actually he treats the colored people well. And they know how they stand with him.

So if the looters and the torch bearers should decide to branch out in Dearborn in the next few days, they'll encounter a strong force that doesn't have to worry about losing votes in the next election.

The "black power" will be exposed to "Hubbard power."

EAST END, WEST END: And where's Dearborn's police chief during these trying days . . . He's somewhere in northwest Detroit putting up a brave front against the Negro rioters . . . Police Chief Jack O'Reilly was up at Camp Grayling with the National Guard when "baby" began burning the stores on 12th Street and points west . . . O'Reilly, who holds the rank of major, was reported working out of the Army on Eight Mile . . . Another Dearbornite on duty with the "week-end soldiers" is John Probst, Recreation Department publicist.

Helene Pierce, who used to put on testimonial dinners for Judge George T. Martin when he was on the municipal bench, is now doing the same for Associate Judge John L. Kadala . . . Helene, along with Frank Padzieski, is currently promoting a dinner for Kadala on September 7 at Edsel Ford High, a few days before the primary . . . You can obtain tickets by calling Helene at LU 2-6670.

And after all these years, Dearborn Veteran's Hospital will soon "move" into Allen Park without dislodging a hospital bed . . . The move will come when the hospital finally starts getting its mail through the Allen Park post office . . . For years, the VA facility has been picking up its mail at Dearborn.

Warren Avenue Boys Surrender to a Tear and a Sister's Umbrella

By MARGUERITE AUSTIN

A Sister's umbrella and a once discarded reproduction of an oil painting of the Christ shedding a tear for humanity—are these the mystic forces that have motivated Dorothy Fitzpatrick? She believes they are.

While sections of West Warren east of Dearborn smoldered in the wake of last weekend's riotous conflagration, a group of teenagers a few blocks west of Dearborn on the same street were busy with plans to right the wrongs they had done local merchants by their acts of vandalism.

THESE ARE the same youths who little more than a week ago were the scourge of both the business and residential neighborhood to such an extent that many businessmen moved out while boarded windows and broken glass were the mute evidence of vandalism to those who remained in fear.

Into this situation Dorothy Fitzpatrick had moved, opening her Colonial Gallery of Fine Arts at 16956 W. Warren. Refusing to be intimidated, she literally sat out her tormentors day and night, finally rallying Detroit Councilman Mary V. Beck and Insp. Norman Werner of Schaefer Police Station to the cause.

A meeting in the gallery between Insp. Werner and some 30 boys last week took a surprising turn. Boys who only days before had swaggered defiantly past the gallery were strangely subdued. Out of the conference a simple truth emerged: Boys with records, shunned by both the armed services and employers, had been striking back at the society which they thought had sloughed them off like driftwood.

BUT DOROTHY Fitzpatrick had offered the boys something more than the threat of force. She told them that she cared, that others cared, too, and wanted to help.

As a result of the meeting, the boys resolved to stage a march last Sunday carrying signs they painted themselves. "We'll Cut Our Hair If We Know You Care," "Clean Up Our Records and We'll Clean Up the City" and "God Bless Mary Beck" read the placards.

Miss Fitzpatrick had sparked a light. But then, other sparks ignited the inner city and their plans were abandoned. They decided that to march could actually solve anything. Interpreting their feelings Miss Fitzpatrick said, "If everyone would march with brotherly love and forgiveness, if all sincere people of all races would light candles of brotherly love we would have more love and understanding."

"IN THE LAST WEEK the boy called 'Little Al Capone' has grown into a big man. He has actually volunteered to stay here and guard me if trouble comes to this neighborhood," she said.

The umbrella bearing the inscription "Sister Ann Benedict?" It has stood in the corner of the gallery for weeks, picked up on a bright day. When Miss Fitzpatrick called St. Christopher Church in an unsuccessful attempt to locate its owner she found another champion of the boys in Father Christopher Leahy, chaplain of the William P. Tutro VFW #4644 Post Home, at 16321 W. Warren.

With him she has explored the possibility of bringing adults together in the neighborhood to raise funds to purchase pool tables and other recreational equipment for the youths. Robert "Bob" Wardell, who comes from the neighborhood and has an understanding of youth has agreed to direct activities for the boys.

Robert "Bob" Wardell, who comes from the neighborhood and has an understanding of youth has agreed to direct activities for the boys.

"SAVATION for Youth" is the name Miss Fitzpatrick has chosen for an organization she plans to launch. A telephone number so listed would bring any troubled boy a lifeline to help.

Strongly guided by a mysticism which she says presages most of her decisions, Miss Fitzpatrick relates that the portrait of "The Savior,"—by King—securely taped to the front window, suddenly fell late Sunday afternoon.

The owner of Gigi's Lounge down the street has offered his rental hall next Sunday afternoon for another meeting between the youths and perhaps a representative of the law and others. Hopefully, Miss Fitzpatrick plans to find a regular meeting and recreation center for the neighborhood youths.

REV. WILLIS will continue his work at First Congregational. The first meeting of the task force will be today at the Council of Churches' office.

Rev. Willis was appointed to the panel by the Detroit Association of the United Church of Christ, and will represent that denomination on the task force.

Peace Corpsman Returns Discouraged Over Policy

If the Peace Corps does nothing else for its volunteers, it brings them down to reality. This was the opinion of Frank Bouvy, 4853 Westland in Dearborn, who served two years as a high school teacher with the Peace Corps in Turkey.

"I was too idealistic when I went in. I really wanted to do something—to make a dent. I found that you could accomplish only limited goals," said Bouvy, who plans to teach social studies and English at Dearborn Edison Junior High next fall.

THE 26-YEAR-OLD Fordson graduate is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Bouvy.

If his accomplishments in Turkey were less than he had anticipated, his disappointment in American foreign policy was far more crushing.

"I felt our State Department was doing more harm than good. We come over to these countries with moneybags and power and think we can sway human values with these things. We find we can't."

He said he believes a basic problem is that American businessmen dominate our foreign policy. Also he said the promotional system within the State Department is so dependent on serenity abroad that officials try to make everything look good to Washington.

"AMERICAN POLITICS and business are so interested in stability in foreign countries, and are so obsessed with anti-Communism, that they forget human values, feelings and interests. The result is they are willing to support fascist regimes."

Bouvy said when trouble comes we have no set policy to fall back on. We keep making new policies and objectives as situations change, so that we're constantly hopping from one stand to another.

"The Communists can keep us so busy reacting, it's the only weapon they need," said Bouvy.

He said that although Turkey is the most developed country in the Middle East, besides Israel, it is still strongly dominated by a religious fatalism that undermines human initiative.

"ALTHOUGH THEY have their prejudices and minority group problems, they are still critical of the U. S. and its attitude toward Negroes because we're the only ones going around the world telling everyone else how to live," said Bouvy.

"I used to feel there were certain hypocrisies here, but after going abroad I found the same hypocrisies prevalent all over. They aren't American characteristics, they are human shortcomings."

Peace Corpsmen were sent to Turkey to teach English and act as ambassadors of good will, explaining the American point of view. The purpose of teaching English was to give the people a working knowledge of one of the scientific languages of the world.

Bouvy said that much of his assignment was in small village areas. "The new middle-class Turks who seek the good life in the big cities, refused to go back and help the poor or deprived people of the rural areas. They wondered why Americans would go into the poor sections and live and teach there."

BOUVY SAID he was one of about 100 Peace Corpsmen in Turkey. He said that although the Turkish educational system, modeled after some European systems "looked good on paper," it did not work so well in reality.

"Children are given 13 subjects, and you find 10 out of 60 in your class taking English are passing. Instead of questioning the system, it is assumed the majority of students are at fault. But how could I as an English teacher expect my students to spend much time on that subject, when they had 12 others to keep up with?"

He noted that failure of American foreign officials to learn the language was another obstacle to our foreign policy. "When an American ambassador arrives abroad he leaves the plane with his translator. A Russian ambassador enters the country knowing the language."

Bouvy learned Turkish during an intensive training program at Georgetown University before leaving on his assignment.

HE RECEIVED his master's degree from Michigan State University, majoring in political science.

Bouvy described the Turkish people as warm and friendly although they tend to be anti-American when they first meet you, "because the only Americans they are familiar with are soldiers and American tourists—tourists are not our best ambassadors."

Junior Olympics Fastest Dashmen

LARRY BIRD, of Howard playground, and Gordie Clark, of Pine-Walnut, are shown in a close finish in the 50-yard dash event. They are two of the 1400 youngsters who participated in the Dearborn Recreation annual Junior Olympics Program last week. Today, 43 champions will represent Dearborn in the Detroit Metropolitan Youth Fitness Program at Lower Huron Metropolitan Park.

Young Athletes Represent City in Metro Fitness Program Today

A contingent of 48 local young athletes, including six new Junior Olympic record holders, trekked to Lower Huron Metropolitan Park this morning to represent Dearborn in the annual Metropolitan Detroit youth fitness program.

The youngsters, all under 18 years of age, qualified for the outstanding individual and team performances in the finals of the annual Recreation Department's Olympiad-type program at Ford Field and Hemlock Parks.

"They will represent the cream of the crop of the more than 10,000 boys and girls at the playground level and the nearly 1400 neighborhood winners who vied last week for champions ribbons," said Robert Keith Archer, director of recreation. "I'm sure that the entire city will be proud of their performance today," said Archer.

NEW CITY RECORDS were established by three girls and three boys.

Karl West, of Crowley Park, with a leap of 6'8", established a new record in the Class C standing broad jump.

Hemlock's Tom Mealbach gave future Class A running broad jump entries an impressive 16'10" mark to shoot at. Mike McGee, of Anthony, notched his record in the Class C Chinning event with an effort of 22 pull-ups.

Records were broken by girls in all classes of the hop, step and jump. Diane Pezak, of Summer-Stephens, became the Class A leader with a jump of 23'5 1/2". In Class B, Carmella Redolli of Cherry Hill had a record leap of 24'6 1/2". Chase-Ruby's Debbie Wray attained her milestone by finishing at 13'4".

IN ADDITION to West, other boys competing in the Standing Broad Jump will be John Sedlak, of Miller-Blesser, Class A, and Wade Canfield, Henry Ford, Class C.

Boys' Softball Throw champions for 1967 are Don Terry of Ford Woods, Class A; John Benko of Howard, Class B and Ted Klarrerus of Ford Woods, Class C. Hop, step and jump winners were: Mickey Lating of Hemlock, Class A; Chuck Dandson of Penn-Vassar, Class B and Richard Ladisera of Woodworth, Class C.

Mealbach will be joined in the running broad jump by Randy Szeiler of Ford Woods, Class B, and Craig Lineberry, of Woodworth, Class C.

Mike McKee will have Joe Syrian of Geer, Class A, and Jeff Olinic of Howe, Class C, alongside of him in the chinning competition.

GIRLS' 50-YARD dash champions are: Brenda Goodwin, of City Hall, Class A; Pat Bielewski of Ford Woods, Class B and Janet Carroll of Haigh, Class C.

Topping the softball throw were: Debbie Waslesky, of Summer-Stephens, Class A; Nancy Neubacher of Ford Woods, Class B and Jackie Neubacher of Ford Woods, Class C.

In addition to the individual champions, which were determined on the basis of a comparison of times and distances in the Hemlock and Ford Field finals, three shuttle relay championship teams are entered today.

Class A competition will see Ford Woods Dominik Letizio, Russ Oliviero, Cindy Ventro and Shenagh Robertson.

Pat Roosevelt, Dennis Moore, Jeanette Morrell and Lisa Wash were the Class B winners. They emerged from Crowley.

In Class C, the top shuttle relay team is an entry from Lovex Park.

While the Junior Olympics stressed individual and team efforts, the Ford Woods and Penn Vassar playground entries claimed the most total points in the two finals.

Be your own man—it never pays in the long run to let others do your thinking.

Jr. Olympics Winners

Salesman's Car Looted at Motel

A Redford Township salesman's trip to California was delayed unexpectedly Saturday when thieves tried to open a vent window of his car and stole several suitcases containing a large quantity of boys' and girls' clothing.

The victim, Frederick W. Johansson, told police he had parked his car at the Dearborn Town House, 2101 S. Telegraph, and when he returned he found someone had broken into it.

Johansson said that aside from his luggage, 31 pieces of children's clothing, including 25 dresses, sweaters and blouses for girls two to nine years of age were missing.

Rule Death A Suicide

The Wayne County Medical Examiner's office ruled today that the death of a 38-year-old Dearborn man was "suicide."

The victim, Odell Powers, of 2811 Holly, was found in his home Sunday evening with a shotgun wound in his head.

Odell's brother, Alfred Powers, of 763 Distel, Detroit, discovered the body lying on the floor. Near the victim's body was a sawed-off shotgun. Alfred told police that his brother had been separated from his wife and had been dependent for the past few weeks.

Fun on Camp Beach

A PAIR OF energetic Dearborn boys can wear out a mother but not the beach at Camp Dearborn. These two, Mark, 4, (left) and Joey Agius, 3, of 3231 Campbell spent a full afternoon on the half-mile long beach and ended up tired and happy. Facilities at the "Citizens Country Club" are keyed to Mayor Orville L. Hubbard's policy of "something for everyone," especially youngsters.

No Political Cards on Bulletin Board

Mayor Orville L. Hubbard this week declared "war" on City Council candidates who have been "invading" his Vietnam war bulletin board at City Hall.

Hubbard's lieutenants moved fast to remove the campaign cards put up by Councilman Van D. Mericas and Council aspirant Robert A. Selwa among the Mayor's yellowing Vietnam clippings.

clippings that now cover most of the walls on the first floor of City Hall. But he did update the statistics on war dead.

DR. MERICAS and Selwa said they were putting up "fresh" materials, but Hubbard said that he wanted to maintain the "purity" of his anti-war theme. Nearly all of the Mayor's own clippings deal with Vietnam, U.S. foreign policy, and U.S. losses.

For the third week in a row, Hubbard failed to put up any new clippings about Vietnam, and left up all of the aging

The latest statistics, according to the bulletin board, are 175 Americans killed in Vietnam last week, 282 the week before, for a total of 13,685; and 1,443 Americans injured in Vietnam last week, 1,170 the week before, for a total of 72,473.

Hubbard personally toured another "war" front Monday, the riot areas in Detroit, but so far he has not put up any clippings, or charted any statistics, about that on his bulletin board.

8 Auto Dealers Named to 1967 Show Committee

Eight members of the Detroit Auto Dealers Association today were named to the 1967 Detroit Auto Show Committee. Auto Show Chairman Harry Tennyson, president of Tennyson Chevrolet, said the eight also will be responsible for various show activities.

The 1967 Detroit Auto Show will be held in Cobo Hall and run for nine days, Saturday, Nov. 18-Sunday, Nov. 26. It will be the first major auto show in the nation and the largest devoted to the display of 1963 domestic and foreign cars and recreational vehicles.

TENNYSON was appointed chairman of this year's auto show by Chilton Drysdale, Drysdale Buick, Inc., Detroit, who is president of the Detroit Auto Dealers Association, The D.A.

Smashed Window Not Due to Riot

A large plate glass window at the Montgomery Ward's store at Michigan and Schaefer was smashed Monday afternoon but the incident was not related to the Detroit rioting. The window was smashed by an out-patient from the Wayne County General Hospital. The patient asked Dearborn police to lock him up because he was afraid he would repeat his actions. The police consented after the hospital said it couldn't re-admit him at this time.

Redford Strengthens Positions In Class A

Rolls Past Boring, Dearborn

Redford Township scores twin victories during A League action this past week to strengthen their hold on first place in the team standings.

Homeruns by Bob Masson and Dick Harlow powered Redford past second place King Boring, 6-1. Don Paige limited the losers to three hits.

Redford rolled past Dearborn entry Bach, 5-1, scoring three big runs in the fourth inning behind back-to-back triples by Jim Pobiersky and David Wollock and a round tripper by Bob Green. Redford ace hurler Tom Tanner scattered four hits in the winning cause.

LATER in the week Dearborn Bach bounced back to edge Dearborn Heights, 1-0. Bob Lewis' single in the bottom of the seventh inning drove in Bernie Parker for the margin of victory. Ron Fair struck out seven and allowed only three Heights hits.

Behind the one hit pitching of Larry Gudith, King Boring shut out Inkster, 4-0. Inkster miscues were the big factor in the Boring win.

A seventh inning single by Dan Longlin led Livonia to a 6-5 upset over Dearborn Bach.

A two run second inning was all Dearborn Heights needed to squeeze past Inkster, 2-1. Consecutive singles by Bob Enos, Dave Pavilka and Ron Fair knocked in two runs to give Heights the winning edge.

Mrs. Lanford Tops Suburban Women Golfers

Ruth Langford shot a 92 last Friday at Arrowhead Golf Course to pace the championship flight of the Women's Suburban Golf Association.

The low net in that flight was carded by Jane Todd who had a 79 (94-15).

In the first flight, Dearborn's Dorothy Wingerson finished up with a 102 for top honors while Carol Jackson bagged a 84(110-26) for the best low net.

In the second flight, Ruth Corly's 108 was the best low gross registered while Betty Brown of Livonia ended up with an 80(110-30) to top the low net class.

New Stables Spotlight DRC's 84-Day Race Meet

New faces in the official family, new stables which will introduce an improved caliber of horses to Michigan fans and the distribution of $2,600,000 in purses are spotlighted as the Detroit Race Course prepares to open its 84-day meeting Monday, July 31.

The Opening Day racing program will be featured by the $12,500 added Curtains Up Handicap. The event, for three-year-olds at six furlongs, has drawn 29 nominations.

Dale Shaffer, President of the DRC, expressed optimism over the coming season.

"Racing has made significant strides in Michigan in recent years and we feel the Detroit Race Course has been the leader in upgrading the caliber of Thoroughbred racing in the State and through the constant modernization of our plant in increasing the popularity of the sport."

THE MICHIGAN Mile, to be raced on Saturday, Sept. 16, has become the showcase of Michigan racing and has attracted national prominence with its excellent fields.

The Mile again will have an added value of $100,000. It is double the value of any other event raced at a Michigan track.

"In 1967, we will have a highly attractive companion stake for The Mile," Mr. Shaffer said. "It will be The Milette, with an added value of $35,000, for three-year-old and up fillies and mares. It will be run on October 7. The distance is a mile and one-eighth."

Franklin and Coach Tom Curran, of the Dearborn Recreation Department.

Softball Leaders Clash

Red division leader Midtown held its grasp on first place by defeating second place Adrian Sign 6-4. Dennis Juazunas scattered seven hits in pitching his team to the victory. A loss would have dropped them to a second place tie. Stan Lopata and Dan Whitmer each had successive base hits and scored four runs between them in the big win.

Golden Key Billiards fought a losing battle with Faigle Tool & Die as a walk and a base hit in the ninth inning provided Faigle the 3-2 margin. Tom Lackey celebrated his birthday with a lead off home run in the first inning as Bryant Ford defeated White Stag Inn 6-1.

White Stag bounced back to out class Adray 16-1. Other games: Adrian Sign 10, 49'ers 1; Adray 4, 49'ers 7.

THE PUSSYCATS with a 15-0 record just kept rolling along. The latest victim was McDonald's. Don Tinske again stroked the biggest hit, a sixth inning homer to feature the 5-0 shut out. Earlier in the week Norm Linske got into the homerun act with the big blow as Huffmaster fell 18-4. Bob Shuk led Jim Purcell to a 12-1 victory over last place Marty's Welding.

Before bowing to the Pussycats, McDonald's had blasted "Ray Morrow" 11-6. Jeff Lash the number eight batter had 3 for 4 and scored twice in leading his team to the victory.

In the blue division J & Y Bar has the momentum to carry to the top position if the leading "Playboys" falter. This past week's action saw them climb from a distant fourth to a close second. Nine hits and nine runs in the fourth inning proved the difference in a 14-7 conquest of Miller's Chrome.

TOM RADCLIFF stroked a three run triple to lead the attack. The Thunderbirds didn't show up so an easy forfeit victory put P & Y Bar into the second spot.

Another home run by Paul Christoff led Cudillo Realty to the 12-10 victory over Chavis Mobil.

Amen All-Stars dropped a pair and two notches in the league standings. Two home runs by Carmen Morga were too much in the first game as Allen Fence took a 15-8 decision. Miller's Chrome got an easy victory on a forfeit in the other All-Star loss.

Errors, Poor Defense Spell Defeat for Smith's Chapel

A two run error and a mix up on defensive signals were the major factors in the Smith Chapel Shamrocks' defeat last week. And in doing so, Smith's virtually eliminated themselves from the Class F championship race. The pre-season favorites dropped a 6 to 5 decision to the Panthers on Tuesday and "gave" the Colts a 3 to 2 win on Thursday.

In the Panthers game, the church team committed two errors on one play to field two runs in the third inning. With runners on second and third, Rick Yankee ground to Tyrone Liddell, who threw wide of first baseman, Eugene Floore.

In a two-all deadlock at Carver Field, with Ron Grayson on third and Darrie Clark on first, Clarke broke for second base.

The Shamrocks chased Clark in a rundown. In the meantime, Grayson crossed the plate with the winning tally.

The Colts grabbed a two run lead in the first inning, but the Shamrocks came back and tied it in the top of the second. Ron Grayson and Gary Barnes stage-thrilled the huge crowd with a magnificent pitching duel.

Pint-size Dwight Newman, made several spectacular plays at second base for the Colts. Art Cooper's triple in the sixth inning was the lone extra base hit of the game.

In other Class F games the Eagles won their fourth straight game by trouncing St. Kevin's Blue 14 to 4. Johnny Evans and Danny Hopkins combined on the mound to gain the win. Fourteen hits by the Angels were the feature of an Angel 16 to 0 shut-out over Blue Sox. Dave Wiacek, in addition to being the shining pitcher, collected four hits.

Gary Wilson, Dave Zafke, Tom Michelich, Jim Bickell, and Craig Yee had two hits each. Mike Perkins and Steve Adams had three and two hits respectively.

JIMMY BUSSE, of 5051 Steadman, circles Recreation Department's Junior Baseball pro-base on a homerun in a recent sub-midget game at Ford Woods Park. All teams in the Aug. 1.

Blazo, Police Rule Class A, MEA Contests

Rain dampened the spirits and kept action to a minimum in Recreation Class A softball the past week.

The league leader Blazo's picked up an easy victory from Last Chance Lounge. Ted Wykes had a single and a homerun in leading Blazo's to the 9-3 decision.

Santieu Funeral bettered their record with a 13-5 lopping to Abrasive Supply. Frank Groben had a perfect right with 4 for 4 and also scored three times in the contest.

Chris' Pizzeria got back in the winning column with a 10-1 victory over Joe Takas. Manager Tom Bruce of Adray scored once but Don Julian hit the longest ball as his two run homer was the difference in a 5-4 game with Querfeld.

Rizzo's scored a run in the first inning but it was hardly enough as New Place Lounge was on the long end of an 11-1 count. Sheldon Tire tried hard but Alex Longridge had 3 singles and scored three himself to carry Chick's Bar to the 11-7 victory.

STANDINGS released through the Dearborn Recreation Department show the Police team the undisputed leader in the MEA League. The record stands at seven wins and two losses with the Highways a distant second with three wins, four losses.

The past weeks action saw 2 encounters between Highways Pine Tree Bowl and Engineers. Pine Tree loosened all the stops in the first game winning easily by a 22-2 margin.

It was simply a case of being out classed and out gunned for the Engineers. Every player came through with at least one hit for Pine Tree.

In the second contest the Engineers had improved but not enough as they came out on the short end of an 11-3 contest. Once again a balanced scoring attack paved the way for a victory.

The winners had 19 hits between 10 men with every man getting at least one. Joe Poma had 3 for 4 including a triple, double and a single.

Midget Battle Sharpens

Modern Accordion of the Midget division at Levagood blasted the Orioles 7-4. Bruce Wagner and Spider Corak led MA at the plate, smacking out three singles each in as many trips. Rich DeVore, and Craig Morga both had circuit blows for the losers, DeVore clouting his with two men on. Dusty Drause hurled a four hitter to aid the winners while going one for two.

Bill Kokas' bat led the Twins to a 7-2 victory over the Wolverines. Kokas connected twice in three at bats, homering with Steve Treweek on, and scoring twice himself. John Shader banged out a triple Tom Locke, Rick Snyder and Larry McDonald, on through singles.

A Go Getter nine of Ford Woods racked up an impressive 8-5 victory over GS 400 with Jim Flum leading the batting attack with a double and a circuit blow for three attempts. Dan Klocking pitched a brilliant two hitter while aiding the Go Getters with a single and a run. Craig Lineberry tried to rally GS 400 by banging out a single and a double.

THE GTO'S squeaked past the Giants 4-2 as Dennis Dix took batting honors. Dix connected in the third for a triple with the bases loaded to give the GTO's their decisive two run margin over the Giants. George Juscyk went two for three on a single and a double for the losers, getting one RBI in the process.

In yet another close Midget game at Ford Woods, the Bombers slipped past E and L 3-2. Brothers Jim and Dave Berry were both hit by pitches, and both scored on sacrifices.

Mike Thon brought in the deciding run in the last inning smacking out a single and coming home on another single by Bill Homud.

Midget action at Hemlock saw East Dearborn Kiwanis obliterate the Yankees 9-3. Dan Delk was the powerhouse for Kiwanis smacking out two circuit blows to bring in a total of four runs. Frank Goosmen and Jack Morris each went two for three, Morris getting one RBI.

Schneiders Sport Shop fell before the Wolverines 2-1 in the Midget division at Ten Eyck. Gary Bodurka and Louis Brano scored both of the Wolverine runs, Bedurka coming home on Brano's triple, and Brano's on an error. Brad Shuster made Schneider's only run by homering in the third. Ten Eyck's Wildcats squeezed past St. Martha's No. 2 4-3, despite a last inning rally which saw Martha men Tom Lewandowski homer with Jeff Burek on. Dave Beckham went two for three as did Gary Schmidt for the winners.

THE YANKEE midgets, playing out of Crowley, dumped the Mustangs 18-1. It looked as if the Yankees had only come out for batting practice as Dan Sitarski, Rich Max and Jack Rankin each went three for four, scoring a total of eight runs.

Ron Sullivan got the Mustangs on the board with a homer in the second.

The Mustang nine again met defeat this time at the hands of the Cougars 11-1. A fourth inning rally gave the Cougars a decisive nine run lead as each member rounded the bases once. Kevin Connolly began the rampage by tripling with Mike Burke, Mart Kibit, and Larry Kiekens on. Mike McNally was the only scorer for the Mustangs, getting on through a single and coming home on a sacrifice.

KALBY'S STILL IN FIRST PLACE

Final Week In Class F

Kalby's Raiders, still holding first place with nine wins and no losses, dumped the Braves 7-3 in Faction at Levagood. Tom Kalis contained the Braves to four hits while teammates John Renko and Ron Rzepecki connected twice in three at bats. Renko scored twice on Rzepecki's singles getting an RBI when Tom Kalis crossed the plate on his one bagger. Bob Gjorgensen made a valiant effort for the losers, homering in the second, and again scoring in the last on a sacrifice. Bruce Szopa had a circuit blow in the fourth with Doug Davis on through a single.

In an earlier game the Raiders beat the Rams 3-1 as Tom Kalis performed another excellent job holding the Rams to two hits. Gary Rigby was the lone scorer for the Rams on Davis was the first Raider across the plate on a sacrifice by Barry Swicki. Swicki later singled to score on errors as Kalis came home on Davis' single.

THE SECOND place Pirates deluged the Braves 12-1, paced a walk and a single. Doug by Bob Percy's homer in the third. Mike Gogola connected twice in three trips to the plate, bringing home Mark Edwards. Jim Wheldon tossed an impressive game, allowing only four hits.

A Teamster nine obliterated Kiwanis 18-0 as powerhouses Mario Powell, and Bill Fredricks led the action at the plate, both going three for four and scoring twice each. Rich Marinucci went two for three, smacking out a double with the bases loaded. Marinucci controlled the mound allowing the starving Kiwanis only one hit.

V.F.W. managed to slip past the Hornets 2-1 before that game could go into extra innings. Mike Hoffman touched home with the winning run in the top of the last on a single by Mike Anella and a double by Mark Czekay. Eugene Mot and Ted Kizoff took care of the mound action, Mot finally emerging victorious in a game which saw a total of five hits, only two coming off the Hornets bats.

Gary Paul scored the Hornets lone run in the third, by getting a base on balls and scampering home on Tony Kumor's sacrifice.

Faction at Hemlock saw the Orioles sting the Hornets with an 11-4 decision. Randy Sheeler started the rampage with a circuit blow in the first with Dennis Ziaba on with a single. Ziaba made a fine showing going three for four with two doubles and a single. A last inning rally, led by Frank Spadafora was squelched by hurler Jon Vanzo, only after the Hornets managed to bring home three of their team mates.

NINE COBRAS were strangled by the Spartans 8-6 despite losing pitcher Ron Baj's impressive effort holding the Spartans to five hits. Gary Eousamra gave up only one more hit than Baj, going one for three and scoring one time, for the winners. John Mancina crossed home plate with the final run in the last, after going three for four.

At Ten Eyck, Sunnyside of Recreation Class F, led by hard hitting Bob Sowinski, swept past Riviera 9-5. Sowinski clouted out one homer and two singles in four trips to the plate getting one RBI in the process.

Bob Rathwell went two for two scoring twice and bringing home Wally Lis with a single.

Adray's All Stars held batting practice against St. Martha's No. 1 eventually racking up a 29-2 victory. Martha's men tried desperately to rout the Stars; but all they could manage were on run rallies in the third and fifth. Jim Vebbing went four for five on two singles and two round trippers, collecting a total of five RBIs. Hurler Jim Horian came away with the infamous glory of being the only Star to strike out, going four for five. Sandy Pilch scored both of Martha's runs getting on base through walks.

In Faction at Crowley the Meats beat the Dodgers 4-1. Dennis Wyman's clutch hitting broke the 1-1 tie which had prevailed up until the bottom last inning. Joe Panek and Brian McKowen were on through errors as Wyman stepped into the batters box to connect for a roundtripper. Otis Monday pitched a great game for the losers, allowing only three hits, while the winning hurler, Wyman, contained the Dodgers to three hits.

M-Squad took the Chargers 8-3 in other Recreation Action at Crowley. John Ryniak went two for three getting one RBI, for the winners, while teammate George Delvechio went three for three on a triple and two singles. Harry Hitoffe scored the final run on a single and a sacrifice.

Championship Contest Brewing in Gals' Loop

With the season's close in sight a potential championship game looms on the horizon of Women's Softball Competition.

The Allen Fence Poles and Dombey Metal Product teams have identical 4-1 records and are paired for a August 3 clash. To be eligible for this feature game the "Poles" must first get by a game July 27 with Jones' Metal.

Jones' is bringing up the rear at present but is anticipating their finest showing of the season on the 29th.

GAMES THIS past week saw the Poles easily dispose of the Limgelights 14-9. Lorraine Lis, the Poles heavy swinging right fielder, again proved her prowess with four successive singles. Teammate Bev Yanick won't take a back seat either as she also rapped 4 base hits and scored three times.

Michelle Smith also scored three runs.

Dombey ran into a fact improving Jones' Metal group but managed to pull out with a 6-0 victory. Val Blow collected 2 hits and one R.B.I. Carol Klonowski also had a pair of singles and scored a run.

City to Open Health Screening Center

Dearborn residents will be getting even better health protection in the future when a permanent health screening center opens here on Sept. 15.

Administered by the Dearborn Health Department, over $300 worth of tests will be offered for a $2 registration fee, says Dr. Joseph G. Molner, city health officer.

Financed by Federal, State and local funds, the battery of tests will be offered to citizens over 21-years old.

MAYOR Orville L. Hubbard asked Dr. Molner to set up a permanent program from a central testing location following the success Health Department personnel had with portable testing clinics in Dearborn earlier this year.

"The desire for the type of medical information furnished by these tests is much greater than we originally anticipated," said the Mayor. "Despite adverse weather, we had long registration lines throughout the original screening program and decided to establish the new center to meet a definite public need."

The complete series of tests will include blood tests for the detection of diabetes, anemia, Vascular disease, cholesterol and heart disease; blood pressure and obesity measurements; chest x-rays for signs of tuberculosis, cancer and heart disease; plus vision and hearing tests.

"Everyone over 21 should take the tests," Dr. Molner said, "especially the people who think they're perfectly healthy."

"This new program has a two-fold purpose," he said. "First, from a scientific standpoint we hope to demonstrate the overwhelming number of diseases and illnesses that go undetected within an outwardly healthy segment of the population."

"Secondly, we hope to encourage and point up the need for people to schedule regular health check-ups by their own physicians."

DR. MOLNER points out that over 50,000 persons died in Michigan during 1966 from chronic diseases, many of which could have been prevented if the disease had been detected in the early stage.

By early stage, Dr. Molner said he meant before the disease had a chance to entrench or produce signs which would normally influence a person to go to a doctor. "Symptoms often don't occur until the disease has reached serious proportions," he said. "This is why we're particularly interested in testing people who feel healthy."

The complete battery of tests can be taken in about half an hour. The only charge will be the $2 registration fee. Dr. Molner stressed that the tests are a screening variety, not a diagnostic series. He said that these tests are no substitute for a complete physical examination conducted in a doctor's office. Should the tests reveal signs of possible disease, people will be referred to their own doctors for further examination, diagnosis and treatment.

Trained nurses and medical personnel will administer the examinations.

Youth Gang Attacks Boy

An 11-year-old Dearborn boy was beaten by a gang of youths when he refused to turn over his pocket money.

The boy told police that he was returning home Friday from baseball practice at the Elmhurst Park when three youths and a girl stopped him and demanded his money.

When the boy refused to surrender his pocket money, one of the gang struck him across the back with a 12-inch chain.

Police later apprehended the members of the gang. One was turned over to juvenile authorities.

Net Match for Juniors Attracts 144

The annual Dearborn Outer Drive Kiwanis tennis tournament has been described as the largest net event for juniors the city has ever held, according to Wilma Clizbe, recreation supervisor.

A total of 144 entries were received in the various divisions of 18 year olds and under. The largest entry of 55 came in the 13 to 15 year old boys' division.

The Recreation Department is running the tournament at the Dearborn High School tennis courts, with the Outer Drive Kiwanis Club furnishing the trophies.

City Tennis Tourney Set for August 1

The Dearborn Recreation Department announced today that the annual city tennis tournament will be held August 1. According to Robert Keith Archer, director of recreation, the winners will represent Dearborn in the state tournament in Ann Arbor August 18-20.

The Senior Divisions, including Men's and Women's Singles, Men's and Women's Doubles, Mixed Doubles and Veterans' Singles (40 or over) will be held at the Edsel Ford High School tennis courts with Ralph Cornet as the director.

THE JUNIOR tournament will be held at the Dearborn High School tennis courts and will include the following divisions:

Boys' Singles, Girls' Singles, Boys' Doubles, Girls' Doubles.

Valley Golf Course Hosts Men's Meet

Warren Valley Golf Course will host the annual men's golf tournament on Saturday, Aug. 26, at 11 a.m. The meet, sponsored by the Dearborn Recreation Department, will consist of one 18-hole round. Only Dearborn residents will be allowed to compete.

Trophies will be awarded to the winner and runner up.

The five players with the lowest scores will have the privilege and opportunity of representing Dearborn as a team in the Michigan State Recreation Association golf tournament in Kalamazoo September 16.

No age limit has been set, so any golfer interested in participating should contact Wilma Clizbe, recreation golf supervisor, at LUzon 4-1200, Ext. 263.

Entries will not be accepted after 5 p.m. Wednesday, Aug. 16.

Jr. Boys' Singles, Jr. Girls' Singles, Jr. Boys' Doubles, Jr. Girls' Doubles, Boys' 12 and under Singles, and Girls 12 and under Singles. These divisions will be in Rose Swidzinska. Entry blanks and further information can be obtained at any of the four tennis centers in Dearborn.

'Tartuffe' Adds Sparkle To Repertory Theatre

By ALAN KROKER

MONTREAL, Que.—Expo '67 is not only a feast for the eyes and one of the most astonishing fairs ever assembled, it is one of the rarest convocations of the arts ever held, too.

This week, for example—and this is just one week's bill—you can find a French-Canadian Company doing Moliere, an Austrian Troupe of fering a Lehar Operetta, Jack Benny, Jack Jones, Maurice Chevalier, Soupy Sales and much more.

LA COMEDIE de Saint-Etienne, headed by the nimble Jean Daste, ignored the conventional "well-made" set in their production of "L'Avare" choosing instead a multi-layered set which allowed for the trivia of housekeeping in one area while the action precedes in another.

The plot is traditionally an assault on human foibles, in this case miselness—lunacy unshaken by sober scoldings—as several marriages are arranged for the sake of profit, threatening true love. Daste is the miser and his character, as are all proper Mo characters, is broad and vulnerable.

"L'Avare" is offered in the original French.

Another foreign language met is German. Specifically the Theatre an Der Wien of Austria, presenting Franz Lehar's operetta "Das Land des Lachelns" (the Land of Smiles), a frivolous—what operetta isn't?—but neurotic bit of whipped cream in which a la "student prince" duty conquers love, this time in a Chinese setting.

Giuseppe Di Stefano essays a Chinese prince with gusto. English interludes are offered by Eduard Linkers, as a eulch, a most appropriate role for a play in which nothing can be taken seriously except the music.

If the Radio City Music Hall had the room of Tiger Stadium to play around with, then what would emerge from the noble minds of their artistic director Leonidoff, who probably resemble "flying colors," a three-ring revue with duplicate, simultaneous shows for each part of the audience, including music, dance, ethnic groups, floats, acrobats from helicopters and every other gimmick calculated to attract friends.

But the chief offering is no gimmick. It's simple talent—Maurice Chevalier. All he does is talk and sing. That's all he has to do.

THE NICE thing about a successful show biz career, spanning four decades is that you can establish a character so thoroughly you don't have to do

Mystery Musical on Tap

Casting for Dearborn Civic Theatre's first production of the season will be held at the Youth Center Aug. 14, 15 and 16 7:30 p.m. to 10 p.m. The play to be cast is a yet unnamed musical that must remain a mystery until the publicity rights are released.

"It's a terrific musical! One with many interesting parts for singers, actors and dancers," said Ken Hansen, city fine arts coordinator. "There are parts for people 15 years of age on up, with most of the cast falling in the 18 to 45 age range."

Tryouts must be held immediately because the show is scheduled for performances on Oct. 6, 7, 12 and 13. Rehearsal schedules will be available during tryouts so that people auditioning can see how much time will be required if they are cast in the show.

"We are hoping people will come and try out, even if we can't publish the name of the musical," said Hansen. "Maybe some people will come just to find out early what play we're doing. They wouldn't be disappointed."

Have Roles in 'Hansel' and Gretel'

LOOKING LIKE the angels they portray in "Hansel and Gretel," these young Dearborn dancers pose with their choreographer Mary Jane Trokel and Assistant Director Steve Gnewkowski. They are, standing, left to right: Miss Trokel, Ann Shewchuck, Lori Wilkins, Marcia Mark, Cynthia Wayne, Cathy Rogers, Janet Del Grosso and Steve Gnewkowski. "Hansel and Gretel" will be presented Aug. 3 and 4 in the Fine Arts Festival tent at Michigan and Greenfield.

HOMELESS DOG — People weren't the only victims of the massive Detroit rioting. An apparently homeless dog is pictured walking among the rubble and debris. The rioting was so widespread and destructive that the scene above could have been visited almost anywhere. The store on the right was left untouched after the Negro owner painted "Chal Brother" on the window. The looting and the fires left a soured mess in the streets and on the sidewalks. Violence Amid Solitude Provides Surrealist Drama
By ROBERT SELWA
Guide News Editor

IT WAS surreal, like one of those weird paintings. You couldn't believe that all of the looting, burning and violence was going on, especially if you were in one of the peaceful areas.

The unreality of the situation, and the sharpness of the contrast, were striking. In some neighborhoods sirens sounded. Guardsmen rode around with loaded guns sticking out of their cars, and glass and bricks lay on the sidewalk and street. In other neighborhoods a short distance away, people tended their gardens and lawns.

They were beautiful summer days, sunny and warm, perfect for sitting on the porch or watering the flowers, and that's what many people, staying home from the riots, were doing. But at the same time their radios blared the latest grim reports of more deaths, more damage, more arrests, more patrolmen.

And then the snipers came, and guerrilla warfare broke out. Vietnam came to an American metropolis, and Saigon became safer than Detroit.

A Dearborn doctor who recently returned from Vietnam said—before the riots broke out in Detroit—that a person can get speedier medical treatment in the jungles of Vietnam than on the streets of a major U. S. city.

And then came the riots, and the police reports. And the one report, of a man injured and lynx on Buena Vista street, over the police radio Sunday night, over and over again the same report was repeated, for more than an hour, and it still no help had arrived.

The riot is only the most graphic demonstration that our major cities have become cement jungles in which people can become lost. The personality of the small society is almost gone; the impersonality of the big city is encompassing much of civilization. Family ties become weaker; the stranger is regarded as an enemy rather than a friend; and danger seems to lurk widely.

It, too, is a surrealist drama, and we the actors who can enact it, or change it.

Sen. Beebe Hails New Implied Consent Law

Senator N. Lorraine Beebe (R-Dearborn) today hailed Governor Romney's signature on the "implied consent" bill as a strong step toward helping rid the state's highways and streets of drunk drivers.

"Persons with poor eyesight or with infirmities that make them poor risks cannot obtain drivers' licenses. Persons with bad driving records may lose their licenses. Implied consent is merely another requirement for a driver's license.

"TRAFFIC SAFETY was one of the principal points of my election campaign last fall and the 'implied consent' bill was part of that campaign. Not only did I vote for this bill, but I also was assigned to the conference committee which after several long and intense meetings settled the differences between Senate and House versions of the bill which could have kept the bill from passing had they not been resolved."

THE BILL requires that an applicant for a driver's license agree to take a sobriety test if he should ever be arrested on suspicion of driving while under the influence of intoxicants.

"This does not take away anyone's rights," she said. "The right to drive a car on the public streets and highways is not an absolute right. It is a privilege and carries with it certain responsibilities—one of them being the responsibility of a driver to remain sober or to let someone else drive.

"Persons with poor eyesight or with infirmities that make them poor risks cannot obtain drivers' licenses. Persons with bad driving records may lose their licenses. Implied consent is merely another requirement for a driver's license.

Fine Arts Festival Slates 12-Day Program of Shows

The Dearborn Recreation Department Fine Arts Festival opens Wednesday, August 2, for a 12-day program of music, drama and dance. Last year's festival drew over 5,000 people to the 24 individual programs that were given.

"This year we are stressing quality instead of quantity," says Robert Keith Archer, director of recreation. "We are doing fewer shows and repeating them so more people can see them. We will have fewer afternoon shows to allow for setup time for our bigger production."

The Chorus will perform medleys from two musicals, "Funny Girl" and "Man from LaMancha" plus other familiar songs such as Sentimental Journey and Lady of Spain.

The Dance Ensemble will show its talent in both ballet and jazz dancing on numbers such as Bourbon Street Bent and an original dance sequence, Graduation Ballet Suite. The popular harmonica quartet the Harmonicals will lead their unique stylings to such favorites as Georgie Girl and Music to Watch Girls By.

by children for the children of the community. There is no charge for these performances.

The Dearborn Civic Theatre summer production of the sophisticated comedy "Sunday In New York" follows with evening performances on Friday and Saturday, August 4 and 5, at 8:30 p.m.

The cast, directed by Wallace Smith, includes Howard McFarlane as the beleaguered bachelor, Adam Taylor; Lorene Brooks as his eager young sister, Eileen Taylor; John Veitch as her stodgy fiancee, Russ Wilson; Jon Choate as the not so innocent bystander, Mike Mitchell and Barbara Wilcox and Harry Albertson as the versatile duo that trace the fast-paced action to its hilarious climax.

Tickets for "Sunday In New York" at $1.00 per person, are available at Fera's West Bookstore, the outh Center and the Recreation Office.

THE FESTIVAL opens with a free choral and dance concert Wednesday night, August 2, featuring the Dearborn Summer Chorus, The Dearborn Recreation Dance Ensemble and the harmonica quartet, The Harmonicals.

IN ONE OF THE FEW afternoon performances, "Hansel & Gretel" will be presented at 2 p.m. Thursday and Friday, August 3 and 4, with a large cast under the direction of Charles Brickel. The traditional Children's classic is performed

2 Arraigned in Holdup

Two Detroit men, accused of holding up a man and taking his wallet in one of the Ford Motor Company's Rouge Plants' parking lots Monday, were arraigned in Municipal Court yesterday.

The men, Willie Tyler, Jr., and John B. Haywood, were charged with armed robbery.

Both stood mute at their arraignment before Judge John Kadela and their examination was set for Friday at 9 a.m. Each was released on $1,000 bond.

Meter Boys May Ticket Parked Cars

Parking meter officers will soon have the same authority as city police in ticketing cars parked on private property without the consent of the owner.

The City Council last week gave preliminary approval to an amendment to the traffic code providing this authority to the meter officers.

The ordinance declares it unlawful for any person to park a motor vehicle on private property without the express or implied consent, authorization or approval of the owner, occupant or lessee.

Final approval is expected at next Tuesday's Council meeting.

Stove Flares Up

Dearborn firemen put out a fire in the home of Albert Ahonen, 2021 Venice, last Monday night after a pan of grease left in the oven ignited when the oven was turned on, according to firemen. Damage was minor.

Feed City's Protectors

Along with many area organizations behind the lines of the city's disaster zone, members of the William P. Tutro VFW Post 4644 and its auxiliary, 16921 W. Warren, packed sandwiches and coffee yesterday for Detroit's firemen and policeman and federal troops in the beleaguered inner city.

Dorothy Fitzpatrick, owner of the Colonial Gallery of Fine Arts across the street from the post at 16956 W. Warren, made numerous trips to the troubled areas to deliver the food to the weary men.

Contributing meat and other food stuffs to the effort were these local merchants: Frank's Meat Market, Podgorski Market, Melody Supermarket, A & P Supermarket, Burton's Party Store, Food Fair Market and the Kaufman 5 & 10 Cent Store, which supplied paper cups.
