

Here is Jessica volunteering by working in the archives!

Volunteer Profile

Name: Jessica Ledbetter

Volunteer Position: Intern for Archives and Exhibit Design

Why did you want to volunteer at the Dearborn Historical Museum?

I initially came to the museum to work on the Dearborn Independent Exhibit. After the exhibit was finished, I stayed as a volunteer to gain experience in the archival field and to help contribute to the community.

What has been your favorite volunteer moment so far?

My favorite moment at the museum was the opening of the Dearborn Independent

Exhibit. Seeing the finished product of something I worked on for months was so exciting and it was awesome to work together with the museum to create it.

What does volunteering at the Dearborn Historical Museum mean to you?

Volunteering at the Dearborn Historical Museum means that not only am I gaining real world experience for my future career, but it also means that I have gained a community that I am so excited to be a part of.
